PROBLEM STATEMENT

In today's hiring landscape, HR teams receive hundreds of resumes for a single job post, making manual screening both time-consuming and prone to bias. This often results in missed opportunities and inefficient hiring.

PROJECT OVERVIEW

my portfolio features a detailed "About Me" section, a curated list of skills, notable achievements, and easy contact options for collaboration or opportunities. Together, these elements highlight my continuous learning mindset and dedication to building meaningful digital experiences.

WHO ARE THE END USERS?

Recruiters, hiring managers, potential clients, collaborators, and academic evaluators who are interested in assessing my capabilities, experience, and suitability for professional or academic opportunities.

TOOLS AND TECHNIQUES

I am creating a digital portfolio using HTML for the structure of pages, CSS to style and visually enhance the layout, and JavaScript to add interactivity and dynamic features. This combination allows me to showcase my skills, projects, and personal information in a professional and engaging way,

POTFOLIO DESIGN AND LAYOUT

"This portfolio showcases my skills, tools, and selected projects, highlighting my ability to solve problems, create value, and deliver results through practical experience and creative solutions."
